SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (“Act”), Public Law No. 111-203, Title X, established the CFPB. The CFPB administers, enforces, and implements federal consumer financial law, and, among other powers, has authority to protect consumers from unfair, deceptive, and abusive practices when obtaining consumer financial products or services. The CFPB will maintain the records covered by this notice.

The new systems of records described in this notice, CFPB.008 – Transit Subsidy Program, will collect information from employees applying for or holding parking permits, or applying for or participating in transportation subsidies to be used for public transportation, and vanpools to and from the workplace. Information will be used to determine employee eligibility for transit subsidies and to disburse non-monetary subsidies to eligible employees. The new system implements measures that reduce traffic congestion and air pollution and expand commuting alternatives for employees. A description of the new system of records follows this Notice.

The report of a new system of records has been submitted to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget, pursuant to Appendix I to OMB Circular A-130, "Federal Agency Responsibilities for Maintaining Records About Individuals," dated November 30, 2000, and the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(r).

The system of records entitled, "CFPB.008 – Transit Subsidy Program is published in its entirety below.
